RD'S Report October 5th, 2019

Again a reminder the CAR for the RD's and Ad's for this WSC (World Service Conference) 2020 will be in Irving, TX in January this time. The plan is to get other Zones involved with our Zone. All is welcome! You should already have flyers, I brought flyers last time.

The updated "A Guide to World Services in NA 2018-2020" is available for download at www.na.org/handbooks.

Next Service Holiday will be Sponsorship Day Sunday December 1st. So, it's time to give back. Do something special for your sponsor! You have plenty of time to plan it. Go to www.na.org/nawsevents for more information on Service Day's, PR week, and other special events.

The 3 open positions SZF (Southern Zonal Forum) Facilitator, SZF (Southern Zonal Forum) Treasurer, SZF (Southern Zonal Forum) Representative at the SZF (Southern Zonal Forum) In Kentucky were filed:

Henry C. passed for SZF (Southern Zonal Forum) Representative

Staci H. passed for SZF (Southern Zonal Forum) Facilitator

Sharon S. passed for SZF (Southern Zonal Forum) Treasure

Next SZF (Southern Zonal Forum) on October 25-26, 2019 at the Best Western Aspen Hotel in Fort Smith, AR. Scott and I will be attending. Updated Flyers are available.

The Kentuckiana Region is requesting to move the July SZF (Southern Zonal Forum), July 22-24, 2020 to July 17-19, 2020 to do the 17th-19th being on the same weekend as their 502 Area's Convention. These dates will help fill their Hotel room blocks and make room rates cheaper. The only concern is if these dates will be on other scheduled events in our Region.

I have been directed by the SZF (Southern Zonal Forum) to bring a vote back from our Region on the P.R. Budget and to gather information on the guidelines for the 2 positions that apply to those guidelines. I have the information available and would like to discuss this in open forum.

Also, the SZF (Southern Zonal Forum) is looking to start a Private Facebook Group that cannot be seen by anyone outside the Group and you can only be in the Group if you are invited. The Zone would like your thoughts on this matter. I would also like to discuss this in open forum.

While at the SZF (Southern Zonal Forum) in July I attended several workshops but there was one that stuck out to me. It is an old one we have done it once before but it has been revived. I thought it would be fitting for us – How to Build Strong Home Groups.

In loving Service Troy S.

Greetings Show-Me Region!

Troy and I attended the Southern Zonal Meeting in Lexington, Ky. I think we both learned a lot. Troy's report covered the highlights of the meeting.

I did also attend the Zoom meeting on Online meeting on September 14th. We broke into small groups. In our group we had a variety of experience with online meetings. It didn't seem that there was a consensus about what was the best way to do a "virtual" meeting. Some still use telephone meetings, there are several online platforms available. The "feel" of my room was that there is a general movement toward using the Zoom platform. We also discussed collection 7th tradition, some just don't, but many use PayPal which has some inherent problems, and others use venmo or other online apps all of which have similar issues. The other topic that came up was how do we handle the issue of areas and regions for online meetings. Again, there was no clear consensus. When you have participant from all over the world it is difficult to assign an area or region. Some are members of the region where the moderator is located, but most don't affiliate.

Thank you for allowing me to serve.

Show Me Region PR Report
10-5-19

Hello Show Me Region,

Your Public Relations Committee met yesterday with 7 areas represented and apx 10 addicts in attendance. Outreach was represented with Travis G. Ivan K. – our Regional Webmaster, sent me a report that has been distributed. Members introduced themselves and new folks were welcomed to PR. This was my first as Chairperson and I thank the Region for their vote of confidence. No other positions are filled at this time and all were in favor of considering their abilities and elections will happen in January.

Informal reports were heard before focusing on updating the PR budget. Changes were made and savings should be seen as I will be driving home when the RSC meets in Columbia, MO. Additionally, chairperson mileage may be reduced for the year but ideally, I will be traveling to booths and presentations.

Time was given to review the many travels of our Outreach representative. Unfortunately, he believes this is his last year in this role. Thank you Travis for 3 yrs of dedicated service! Outreach budget will remain the same. Website expenses are taken into account with PR.

There were discussions about how to educate communities when area committees are short-handed. Flyer days (floods) and creating an “on-call” pool were ideas to assist small committees with service. Travis reminded the group that members can request his help when interacting with the public or supporting struggling meetings.

There was some preliminary brainstorming regarding annual booth sitting opportunities around the state. I will ask members of the region to notify me or your PR committee if you know of an event that we should consider attending. We hope to have elections and plan a calendar at the January RSC –PR meeting.

In Loving Service,

Kim O.
PR Regional Chairperson
